For more information on the type of data in question, please refer to the "Cookie Policy" section below.

Data provided voluntarily by users

The information provided directly by users to contact ZP MOTORI ELETTRICI in the manner referred to in paragraph 3. above will be used exclusively to answer questions and requests for information, as well as to provide any services requested by the user. The data may also be processed to fulfill obligations arising from local and international regulations and for the exercise of rights in court.

Providing data is necessary to use the services and functions described above: failure to provide data does not allow ZP ELECTRIC MOTORS to provide these services and functions.

The legal basis for processing is represented by user consent. The data will not be used for marketing or profiling purposes.

6. Data retention time

Navigation Data

ZP MOTORI ELETTRICI must confirm that there is a newsletter service or periodic transmission of informative and advertising material. If so, it will be necessary to further adjust both the "Contact" section and the brief information at the bottom of the data collection form on the Website.

The computer systems and software procedures used to operate the Site acquire, during their normal operation, some personal data whose transmission, based on the TCP / IP protocol, is implicit in the use of the Internet.

This is information that is not collected to be associated with identified interested parties, but which by their very nature could, through processing and association with data held by third parties, allow users to be identified.

This category of data includes the "IP addresses" or domain names of the computers used by users who connect to the site, the addresses in the URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) notation of the requested resources, the time of the request, the method used in the submit the request to the web server, the file size obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given by the web server (success, error, etc.) and other parameters related to the operating system and the computer environment of the user.

Data provided voluntarily by users

The information provided directly by users is kept only for the time necessary to perform the purposes from time to time pursued, or are deleted after completing requests for information or services, unless it is necessary to continue processing personal data the user following further requests (for example following the conclusion of a contract for the supply of ZP MOTORI ELETTRICI services) or that the retention of Personal Data is required by legal obligations.

To obtain further information on the storage of your Personal Data, you can write to ZP ELECTRIC MOTORS at the addresses indicated in point 1 above.

7. Users' rights

In compliance with the Privacy Regulations and in particular the Privacy Regulations (articles 11 and 12), users of the Site are entitled to obtain free of charge from ZP ELECTRIC MOTORS:

- confirmation of the existence and processing of personal data and their written copy (electronic) in a clear and comprehensible form;
- the following information:
 - origin of personal data;
 - purposes and methods of data processing;
 - treatment methods;
 - identity of managers and persons in charge of processing personal data;
 - subjects or categories of subjects to whom personal data may be communicated or who may become aware of them, also as managers or agents.

Users also have the right to obtain from ZP ELECTRIC MOTORS:

- updating, correction and integration of personal data;
- cancellation, transformation into anonymous form, blocking or limitation of personal data processed in violation of the law, including those whose retention is unnecessary for the purposes for which the data were collected or subsequently processed;
- the attestation that any operations requested on personal data by users have been brought to the attention, including as regards their content, of those to whom the data have been communicated or disseminated, except in the case where this fulfillment is it proves impossible or involves a use of means manifestly disproportionate to the protected right.
- The portability of their data, or the transfer of the same to a third party identified by the user

Furthermore, users always have the right to object, in whole or in part

- for legitimate reasons, to the processing of personal data even if pertinent to the purpose for which they were collected by ZP MOTORI ELETTRICI;
- to the processing of personal data for the purpose of sending advertising or direct sales material or for carrying out market research or commercial communication.

Users can also file a complaint with the supervisory authority (Personal Data Protection Authority).

Users can exercise their rights freely and at any time by writing to ZP MOTORI ELETTRICI at the addresses indicated in point 1.

8. Security measures

ZP MOTORI ELETTRICI guarantees that the personal data of the users are kept and checked with the adoption of suitable and preventive security measures, so as to minimize the risk of destruction or loss, even accidental, of the data itself, unauthorized access or treatment not allowed or not compliant with the collection purposes indicated in the information.

However, ZP MOTORI ELETTRICI declines all responsibility in the event that such destruction or loss of data, or access not allowed to them, depends on the equipment used by users or when they are not attributable to their own responsibility. Users must therefore ascertain, among other things, that their computer and internet provider use appropriate and updated software systems for the protection of data transmission (for example: antivirus, firewall, spam filters).

Evaluation of the risks connected to the processing of Personal Data

ZP MOTORI ELETTRICI declares that it has put in place internal procedures for the assessment of risks related to the processing of Personal Data, subject to periodic updating and improvement in order to ensure data security and compliance with the Privacy Law and in particular the Privacy Regulations.

9. Links to other sites

This Privacy Policy applies exclusively to the Site. The Site may contain links to other websites that may have no connection with ZP ELECTRIC MOTORS. ZP MOTORI ELETTRICI can not be held responsible for the content and for the rules adopted, also in terms of privacy, from different internet sites through links or banners. The Site may provide links to these sites solely to facilitate the user in their navigation. It is therefore advisable to pay attention when connecting to the links on the Site and to read carefully the relative conditions of use and privacy rules.

Cookie Policy

Cookies are small text strings that the sites visited by the user send to his terminal (usually, to the browser), where they are stored before being re-transmitted to the same sites at the next visit by the same user. During the navigation on a site, the user can also receive cookies on their terminal that are sent from different websites or web servers (so-called "third parties"), on which some elements may exist (such as, for example, images, maps, sounds, specific links to pages of other domains) on the site that the same is visiting.

Cookies are usually used to operate the site or to improve its performance, as well as to provide information of various kinds to the owners of the site regarding navigation on it, for example the most visited pages.
